

Ethics statement

I hereby certify that I am available for the job in question and that I am not engaged with any other company for the same job.

As a consultant to Kabell Konsulting I accept that performance assessment activities are conducted in accordance with the principals of impartiality, independence, credibility and utility outlined by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's Development Assistance Committee (DAC). I will aim to ensure that evaluation work conducted for Kabell Konsulting conforms with the DAC's evaluation criteria which include:

- Relevance: the extent to which the aid is consistent with the policies and priorities of each of the major stakeholders
- Efficiency: the relationship between the outputs achieved and the inputs used. Efficient aid uses the least costly resources to achieve its objectives
- Effectiveness: the extent to which an aid intervention achieves its objectives at the Purpose and Goal level
- Impact: all changes, positive or negative, attributable to the aid intervention
- Sustainability: the extent to which the activities, outputs and impacts will continue after external support has ended

I furthermore fully subscribe to the values of Kabell Konsulting APS:

- Clarity
- Specificity
- Focus
- Being systematic

I make assumptions explicit, I value empirical evidence, and I always separate statements of fact from interpretations and judgements.
